Dr. Joshua Lederberg, President
Rockefeller University
New York, N.Y. 10021

Dear Josh:

I would like you to know of the enormous assistance being given the Medical College by Mr. David Lyons.

The Medical College has had a long and costly experience putting its computer affairs in order. Dave has graciously provided us with time and expertise to help the College overcome its present difficulties and plan an effective and realistic computer facility for the future.

Preliminary discussions between our staffs, indicates the possibility of a joint venture between our institutions which would greatly enhance our respective computer capabilities. I look forward to such a development and wish to express our gratitude for this invaluable assistance.

Sincerely,
